AT THE AUDITORIUM.

For today the management have senured something of special interest in the motion picture line for those who mjoy this kind of entertainment. It a a Reliance film entitled At Swords foints, and is truly a sumptuous projuction, and ranks as one of the best lims the independents have ever recased. There is one scene in this fasfinating real which was never tried before in motion picture photography, not was so satisfactory that it hus besome one of the special features of the seel. It is a duel in the dark with the only light coming from the clashing niy light coming from the clashing f the swords as blade strikes blade in he blackness. It is a wonderful scene, not the Motion Picture World said of when shown in New York: "The adience sat as though rooted to the pot while this life and death struggle spot wells this life and death struggle was in progress."

The vaudeville programme for Monday will include three first class acts, and the usual illustrated song number. Leavitt and Disnymore will present a very cleverly written protean playlet entitled That Woman Next Door. In this sketch Mr. Nelson Leavitt plays five different characters with exceptional ability and originality. Others on the bill will be Max Stamm, Marley and Futte, and Nick Zeiter, the man who sings in the dark, of whom more will be said in Monday's paper.

BREED THEATER.

Red's Conquest is the title of the sensational western picture at the Breed today and tells of a young western fillow of means who attends a traveling theatrical company's one-night stand producing East Lynne. In the course of the presentation of the much-heralded production an oil lamp is overturned and the house bursts into a panic. The leading lady and her little child are the only souls left in the house and Ee' Curtis believes this is the time to become a hero, so rushes into the faming atructure and escapes with the leading lady, but upon finding that her little child is asleep in her dressing room he returns and brings to safety the little one. The troupe is stranded and the result is that Red enters the matrimontal game and se-Red's Conquest is the title of the

The performance given by the 181 Ranch Real Wild West Show, which will be here Priday, March 18, is so distinctively different from that given by any other similar organization that it cannot be likened to any so-called western exhibition that has ever before been seen in this section. It is truly western, not only in the graphic portrayals, but the participants are real western characters and not of eastern birth and associations. They have not acquired the western manners, but are to the manner born.

For many years wild west shows have been seen in this section. They have not acquired the western manners, but are to the manner born.

For many years wild west shows many years wild west shows For many years wild west shows have been an important factor in the amusement world, but never until the organization of the 191 Ranch Real Wild West Show was the opportunity offered to see the west as it was years ago and as it is at present. While other owners of wild west exhibitions sago and as it is all present. While other owners of wild west exhibitions based their merits on long haired individuals and pseudo military fittes, the loff Hanch wild west has acquired success solely on the truthful and graphic manner in which they transplant the west of the prairies to the very doorsteps of your homes. In other words, every day life on the great 161 Ranch at Blas, Okia, is lived in the huge are pleasant—a candy. They are made to carry with you. Take one just as festure that no other wild west show has been able to produce, but in doing it the 101 Ranch Wild West Show has been able to produce, but in doing it the 101 Ranch Wild West Show has been able to bring into play characters that could not be obtained from any other quarter than the ranch which is owned by Miller Brothers, who, with Edward Arlington, are the owners of the show. In other words, no other show has the same source of supply.

When one considers that the 101 ranch is the largest ranch in the world, it does not require a very great stretch of imagination to realize that the possibilities to organize a perfect wild west show from the material at hand are ilmitless and of such a nature as to preclude all thoughts of any other organization obtaining them. The fact that this ranch is the home of other organization obtaining them. The fact that this ranch is the home of the show and owned by the same men as is the show, gives it a ring of truthfulness that none of the other so-called wild west shows can boast of. It is only the truth here to state that the 101 Ranch Wild West Show is that the 101 Ranch Wild West Show is the only one of western origin and the only one that has a western home. Every other so-called wild west show engages its reople in the east and those who have homes have them east of Chicago. This is why the 101 Ranch Real Wild West Show, to discriminate R from the counterfalts, uses the word "real" in its title.
